

B TROOP, 4TH U.S. CAVALRY (MEMORIAL) FACT SHEET

B Troop is a U.S. Army mounted ceremonial unit whose mission is to promote the heritage and traditions of the U.S. Army in the Southwest during the period of the Indian Wars and support recruiting, community relations, and official/nonofficial ceremonial functions. Through appearances at social, cultural, and other activities, B Troop advances the interests of the U.S. Army, military horsemanship of the 1880's, and the history of Fort Huachuca.

B Troop may be requested to support your event or activity through the Directorate of Plans, Training, Mobilization, and Security (DPTMS) at Fort Huachuca, Arizona. They can be reached at the following e-mail address - HUA-WATCH@CONUS.ARMY.MIL B Troop must normally be requested 60 days in advance of the event. However, it is best to contact the Program Coordinator at (520) 538-2178 to determine if the Troop is available before making the official request

B Troop can provide up to seven mounted troopers per event depending on the availability of personnel. The unit is able to support the following types of activities:

- Cavalry riding demonstrations (requires riding arena)
- Parades or mounted drill
- Outdoor ceremonies
- Mounted color guard at rodeos or sporting events
- Educational presentations
- Historical re-enactments or static displays
- Artillery demonstrations

Events requiring overnight stays or long-distance traveling require funding support from the requesting agency. Contact the B Troop Program Coordinator for an estimate of costs. For additional information about B Troop please see our web site at <http://www.huachuca.army.mil/BTROOP>
